L.M. Singhvi
(b.1931–d.2007)

Laxmi Mall Singhvi, popularly known as L. M. Singhvi was a scholar-statesman, a prolific author, poet, linguist and litterateur, an eminent jurist, a distinguished diplomat and a prominent parliamentarian.

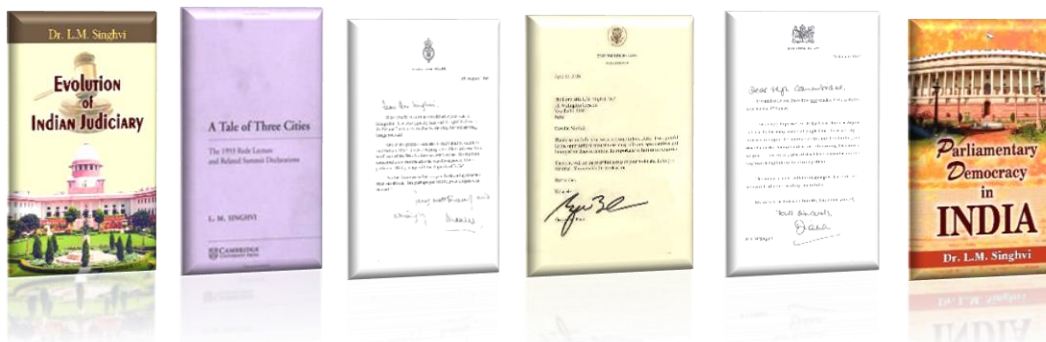

Singhvi was born in Jodhpur, Rajasthan into a Marwari Jain family. He graduated with a gold medal from Allahabad University and then did his MA and LLB from Jaipur University. Excelling in academics, he proceeded to attain masters in Law from Harvard University and LL.D from Cornell University, USA (1955). He returned to India in 1957 and started his legal practice at the Jodhpur trial and sessions court.

In 1962, he contested (as an independent candidate) and won the election to Lok Sabha from Jodhpur constituency. After completing the five year term he resumed his legal practice and began practicing at the Rajasthan High Court and the Supreme Court of India. He was appointed the Advocate General of Rajasthan for the period, 1972-77.

Singhvi served as High Commissioner for India in the United Kingdom from 1991 to 1997 and was the second longest-serving High Commissioner for India in the U.K. after V.K. Krishna Menon. He was elected to Rajya Sabha after his return to India in 1998. He led the Indian delegations to the UN Conference on Human Rights in Vienna in 1993 and the UNESCO Conference on Culture of Peace in Stockholm in 1998. Dr. Singhvi was elected to the International Court of Arbitration at Hague in 2000 and was appointed Chairman of a National High-Level Committee on Persons of Indian Origin and Non-Resident Indians in 2000. He presided over the inauguration of Bharatiya Pravasi Divas on 9 January 2003.

He received LL.D and D.Litt. Honoris Causa from leading universities in India and abroad. He was made an Honorary Bencher and Master of the Middle Temple in 1987 and was Also, appointed to the ancient Rede Chair in Cambridge University. He was awarded Padma Bhushan in 1998.

Dr. Singhvi authored several monographs and books including Sandhya Ka Surya (1991), Freedom on Trial (1991), A Tale of Three Cities (1996), Towards Global Togetherness (2002), Democracy and Rule of Law (2002), A Diplomatic Sojourn (2002), Jain Temples in India and around the World (2002), Diplomacy and Diaspora (2012), and Evolution of Indian Judiciary (2012).
