S.P.K. Gupta
(1931 - 2023)

A veteran journalist, biographer and author, S.P.K. Gupta was born in 1931 at Guntur in Andhra Pradesh. After studying journalism in Madras, he joined the Press Trust of India (PTI), and his first posting was in Kurnool where he worked from 1953 to 1956. Later, he was sent to Bombay (Mumbai), and then to New Delhi where he covered Parliament and national politics from 1963 to 1982. As a war correspondent, Gupta reported the 1971 war on the western front.

He was in Moscow as a PTI correspondent during the Brezhnev-Gorbachev era, 1982-1988. He had the opportunity to interview Mikhail Gorbachev, the General Secretary of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and to cover the travel of Rakesh Sharma, the first Indian into space as a part of the Soviet space mission. He returned as Foreign Editor to New Delhi in 1988.

S.P.K. Gupta has a keen interest in science and technology. He has written in collaboration with Dr. Edgar L. Milford the biography of scientist Dr. Yellapragada SubbaRow, In Quest of Panacea: Successes and Failures of Yellapragada SubbaRow (Evelyn Publishers, 1987). He has edited A Wreath for Doctor Ramayya (Evelyn Publishers in collaboration with Tribology Society of India, 2004), written by Ghen Shangin-Berezovsky and translated from Russian into English by Achala Jain.

Besides, he has also published, Apostle John and Gandhi: The Mission of John Haynes Holmes for Mahatma Gandhi in the United States of America, A Montage (Navjivan, 1988). He has documented his reporting experience of the 1971 Bangladesh war from the western front in a book titled Dispatches of Samar Samvadi (2021).

Archives of Contemporary India

Supported by HDFC LTD.

10 years ago, we embarked on a journey to establish a world-class, multi-disciplinary, liberal arts and sciences university in India. Built on the finest global best practices of institution and university governance, Ashoka has truly transformed Indian higher education in India with its unique pedagogy, governance and best practices. Ashoka is today India's #1 liberal arts and sciences university that is home to the most diverse student body, a hub for impactful research and a magnet for best-in-class faculty and staff.

The Archives of Contemporary India (ashoka.archives@edu.in) was established in 2017 to collect and preserve primary source material for the study of modern and contemporary history of India with major thrust on polity, economy and society. The aim is to establish a leading centre for historical and social science research in the country.
