Prem Shankar Jha

Eminent journalist and prolific writer, Prem Shankar Jha (b.1938) was born in Patna, Bihar and brought up in New Delhi. Educated at Doon School, Dehradun, he later earned a bachelor's degree in economics from St. Stephen's College, Delhi University. He completed his master's in philosophy, politics and economics from the University of Oxford in 1961.

He joined the United Nations Development Programme in New York and Damascus in 1961 and worked there for five years. He returned to India in 1966 to pursue a career in journalism and joined the Hindustan Times as an Assistant Editor. He moved to the Times of India, 1969. After a brief stint as Acting Editor of the Economic Times, 1979-80, and Editor of the Financial Express, 1980-81, he returned to the Times of India as its Economic Editor. In 1986, he re-joined the Hindustan Times as its Editor.

Jha has been a consultant in the preparation of the World Bank's World Development Report, 1978, and to the UN Centre for Human Settlements, Nairobi (Habitat), 1984-85 and again in 1986. In 1980, he co-authored a Manual for the Asia and Pacific Development Administration Center of the UN in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia on the Management of Public enterprises in Developing countries.

He also served as a member of the energy panel of the World Commission for Environment and Development, 1985-87. He received the Energy Journalist of the Year award from the Washington-based International Association for Energy Economics, 1987. He served as the information advisor to the Prime Minister of India, V. P. Singh, 1990.

Jha has been an independent columnist in some of India's leading papers, including the Hindu, Hindustan Times, Times of India, and Business Standard and in the weekly newsmagazines Outlook, and Tehelka. He has also been a visiting scholar/professor at Nuffield College, University of Oxford; Weatherhead Center for International Affairs and Fairbank Center for Chinese Studies, Harvard University, University of Virginia and University of Richmond, USA; and the Indian Institute of Management, Calcutta (Kolkata).

Jha has authored several books including: India: A Political Economy of Stagnation (1980), In the Eye of the Cyclone: The Crisis in Indian Democracy (1993), A Jobless

Future: Political Causes of Economic Crisis (2002), The Perilous Road to the Market: The Political Economy of Reform in Russia, India and China (2002), The Origins of a Dispute: Kashmir 1947 (2003), The Twilight of the Nation State: Globalisation, Chaos and War (2006), Managed Chaos: The Fragility of the Chinese Miracle (2009), A Planet in Peril (2009) and Crouching Dragon, Hidden Tiger: Can China and India Dominate the West? (2010).

10 years ago, we embarked on a journey to establish a world-class, multi-disciplinary, liberal arts and sciences university in India. Built on the finest global best practices of institution and university governance, Ashoka has truly transformed Indian higher education in India with its unique pedagogy, governance and best practices. Ashoka is today India's #1 liberal arts and sciences university that is home to the most diverse student body, a hub for impactful research and a magnet for best-in-class faculty and staff.

The Archives of Contemporary India (ashoka.archives@edu.in) was established in 2017 to collect and preserve primary source material for the study of modern and contemporary history of India with major thrust on polity, economy and society. The aim is to establish a leading centre for historical and social science research in the country.
